

In the bulletin of the PP of November one speaks about the park of Ponte do Porco and its extension for 2010. We had the promise to realize its extension this year but it seems that it will not be like that and as they comment, the park will be extended next year by money of the Autonomous government of Galicia.

You can see a sketch of the new park in this article.

We hope that the new park concludes in the foreseen period.

