

The summer already finished, and in our village the last thing that we celebrate is the pilgrimage of the Residents association. Here we leave some photos of the happened you in the same one.

